2014 FIM Trial World Championship

Round 3 - Grand Prix d'Europe - Ile Rousse (Corsica) France.

Decision of the FIM International Jury

Following the serious incidents that occurred in the World Pro category on 24 May in Ile Rousse, Corsica, on the first day of the Grand Prix d'Europe, the FIM International Jury has referred the matter to the FIM International Disciplinary Court (CDI). The CDI now has jurisdiction to handle the case and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in relation to the riders concerned.

A propos de la FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 111 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 52 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
